

2017 Higher Education Leadership Forum

Agenda

Wednesday, April 26, 2017

5:00pm - 6:00pm	Welcome and Registration
7:00pm - 8:00pm	Dinner at Carleton University

Thursday, April 27, 2017

8:30am - 9:00am	Full Breakfast & Registration
9:00am - 9:20am	Welcome to Carleton University
9:20am - 9:50am	Keynote: University of Sheffield Professor Shearer West: Provost & Deputy Vice-Chancellor Theme: The global context: why is leadership important in Higher Education today?
9:50am - 10:15am	Session #1 Title: Horizon scanning Interactive activity Presenters: Jane Ginniver, Director, Leadership and Management Development, University of Sheffield Nancy Arnold, Senior Quality Advisor, Carleton University
10:15am - 10:30am	Break
10:30am - 12:00pm	Session #2 Title: From LEADERship to LeaderSHIP Development Theme: Research and examples from the field once emphasis shifts to leadership by and for all, followed by an opportunity for Q&A with groups of Carleton & Sheffield Leaders Presenter: Dr Heather Davis, Program Director - Awards LH Martin Institute, University of Melbourne Followed by Sheffield and Carleton Leaders sharing their experience
12:00pm - 1:00pm	Lunch
1:00pm - 2:30pm	Session #3 Title: Leading Change Theme: Results from research conducted by the Workplace Change Project, followed by interactive discussions about the changes participants are currently experiencing in their own institutions. Presenter: Dr Stephen Hart, Manager, Organizational Development, Brisbane Catholic Education

2:30pm - 3:00pm

Break and Carleton University Campus Tour

3:00pm - 4:30pm

Session #4

Title: CoachingOurselves

Theme: Benefits of peer coaching and experience the process

Presenter: Phil LeNir, CoachingOurselves

5:00pm - 6:00pm

Evening Reception and Dinner Sign ups

Friday, April 28, 2017

8:30am - 9:00am

Continental Breakfast

9:00am - 10:00am

Session #5

Video conference

Theme: Leadership of academic work - research, teaching and scholarly community - is not quite the same as leadership of academic institutions. Successful universities depend on both, so it is important to clarify the differences and contradictions. This talk will present research-based insights and a model that might illuminate practical steps for leadership development.

Presenter: Professor Jonathan Gosling

Professor Emeritus of Leadership Studies, University of Exeter

10:00am - 10:15am

Break

10:15am - 11:30am

Session #6

Title: Sharing Our Leadership Development Journeys

Theme: Panel members will share how their respective institutions are addressing the need for leadership development, followed by an opportunity for Q&A and interactive discussion.

Participants:

Rachel Blanc, Head of Talent and Development, King's College, London

Susan Grant, Assistant Director, Organizational and Human Development, The University of Waterloo

Jim Sheridan, Senior Management Consultant, Cornell University

Nancy Arnold, Senior Quality Advisor, Carleton University

Panel moderator: Jane Ginniver, Director, Leadership and Management Development, University of Sheffield

11:30am - 12:30pm

Keynote: University of Sheffield

Andrew Dodman: Chief Operating Officer

Theme: How Sheffield's investment in leadership has facilitated the implementation of large-scale university priorities.

12:30pm - 1:30pm

Lunch

1:30pm - 2:30pm

Session #7

Title: The Impact of Leadership Development: Institutionally and Individually

Theme: ROI

Presenters - Cornell University:

Maria Wolff, Organizational and Workforce Planning Consultant

Jim Sheridan, Senior Management Consultant for Administration

2:30pm - 3:45pm

Session #8

Title: Friendly Consulting

Theme: A specially created process for collaborative exploration, planning and learning through presentations, questions and feedback.

Presenter: Phil LeNir, CoachingOurselves

3:45pm - 4:15 pm

Closing Remarks